

TCBA Meeting minutes October 1, 2024

1. Meeting called to order at 7:00
2. Secretary's report approved
2. Treasures report not available

-Old Business

Thank you to Bruce Goetterman for the demonstration on mini nucs last month

Honey straws are still available for purchase at cost ($17.50/100)

Paula Paulson is selling logo caps. Visit website for pictures and prices. Paula is offering a discount for TCBA club members ($4.00 off plus $2.00 donation to club). Krissy will email the code to use for discount.

-New business

Committee budget requests are due tonight. Fair, Education submitted.

Need nominations for new secretary and treasurer whose terms are expiring. Nominate tonight, vote in November, terms start in December. Neil and Sue Scott nominated for secretary. Sal Gonzalez and Sawyer Koopmeiners nominated for treasurer.

Reminder- November meeting has been moved to second Tuesday of the month (November 12) due to election day on November 5th.

Club library is being discontinued. Materials will be available at next month's meeting for members to take home

-Dos and Don'ts for October

Lot's of robbers around, be careful

Feeding 2:1 sugar syrup now, stop soon so bees have time to dry it down

Wrap hives around Thanksgiving

Advice on keeping 1 deep alive, feed, feed, feed, maybe use candy board

Craig Shepard had some top feeders and frame puller to give away

Advice on how to dry honey

Dave Curtis recommends Wiscosin Bee Expo and products from Hilco supply company

Refractometers will be available tonight after meeting if people want to test their honey for moisture.

Meeting Adjourned 8:10

Respectfullt submitted by

Amy Jonas